

Dallas Film and Creative Industries Directory – Rules and Regulations

The Dallas Film and Creative Industries Directory is designed to market the Creative Media Industries in the Dallas region.

Prerequisites to List:

- 1. Applicant must have a local address.
- 2. Applicant must have at least one paid, verifiable, professional media industry job credit that corresponds with each selected Subcategory or must list as an intern/apprentice.
- 3. Casting / Talent Agency applicants must provide a Texas Talent Agency License number from the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation.
- 4. The directory does not list talent, actors or extras.

SIGN-UP

The sign-up process is on-line. The system will guide you step-by-step through a very simple application. It is recommended that you have your resume ready to expedite the procedure and ensure that all of your information is current and correct.

NO COST

Listing in the directory is free of charge.

APPROVAL

Prior to your information appearing on-line, there will be a short delay for the DFCI staff to verify the content. Be aware that you may be contacted to confirm your information. The DFCI retains the right to reject or edit listings at any time at DFCI's discretion.

DURATION

A listing is active for 3 years from the date it is approved. DFCI encourages you to keep your listing updated.

CATEGORY

Each crew member or support service may choose to list in up to 5 categories and sub-categories. A minimum of 1 paid credit is required per listing. If you do not have a paid, verifiable credit, you may list as an intern/apprentice. A maximum of 10 credits per category are allowed for each registration. Upon completion, your profile will be reviewed and validated before being available in the on-line DFCI directory.

MODIFICATION

Update/modify your listing at any time. Updated profiles are temporarily removed from the system until the DFCI can review the changes. When your entry is approved, the listing will be available on the on-line directory.
